

David de Gea and the sad demise of one of the G.O.A.Ts

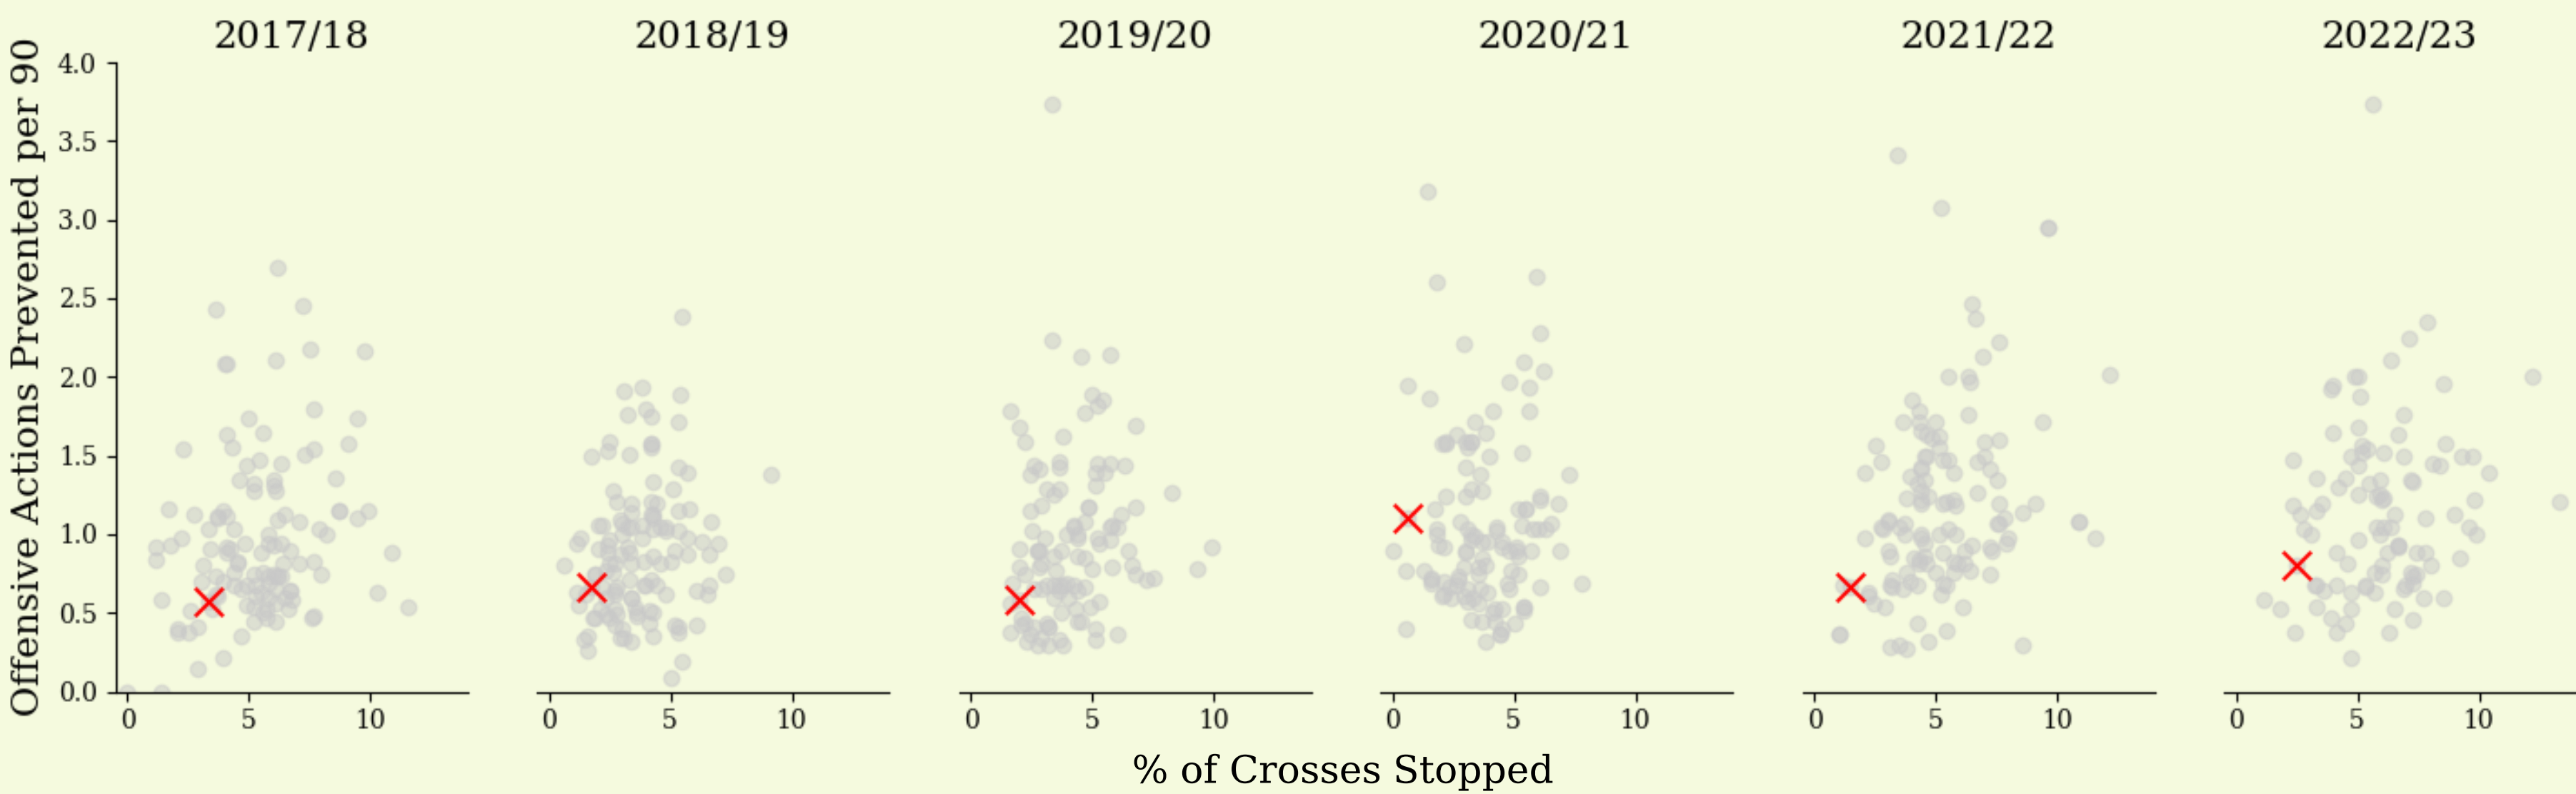

Many Manchester United fans still believe that David de Gea is among the best goalkeepers in the world. However comparisons with other goalkeepers in the top 5 Leagues who have played over 900 minutes tell a different story... (Data via FBREF)

Never been a ball playing goalkeeper...

David de Gea's low amount of attempted passes per 90 compared to the average top 5 leagues goalkeeper as a sign that his teammates and managers do not trust him to positively participate in build up play.

Never been a proactive goalkeeper...

David de Gea's low % of crosses stopped and Offensive Actions Prevented per 90 compared to goalkeeper in the top 5 leagues indicate that he is not comfortable in playing proactively
